23/04/2019 - grant - research villa vassilieff

The ADAGP and Villa Vassilieff are joining forces for the third consecutive year to offer artists (living or working in France) a research grant on the dissemination of images.

Application deadline: 1 May 2019

In connection with a study programme on the photographic archives of Marc Vaux, developed by Villa Vassilieff and the Centre Pompidou, this 20,000-euro research grant allows artists to undertake the production of new works in a context favourable to the dissemination of knowledge.

Franck Leibovici and Liv Schulman won the 2017 and 2018 grants, respectively.

This research grant is intended to enable an artist to develop work over a period of several months (up to a maximum of 12 months) around issues of representation, the production and circulation of images.

How to apply

This call for applications is reserved for artists living or working in France.

To apply, send an application by 1 May 2019, including:

- An introduction to your artistic practice (max. 300 words, PDF format)
- A research project for the research grant (max. 500 words, PDF format)
- A portfolio presenting your work (PDF format, max. size 50MB)
- A bio (max. 300 words) and a CV (PDF format)
