In partnership with the Palais de Tokyo, ADAGP encourages and supports emerging creation in the urban arts. It is launching the fifth edition of the Revelation Street Art. Applications until August 28, 2020 at 2 p.m.

This Revelation is aimed at artists in urban art, at the start of their careers. They must be of legal age on the date of submission of the application, must reside or work in Europe, the United Kingdom and Switzerland et must have intervened recently in public space and have works still visible.

The winner will intervene at the Palais de Tokyo as part of the Lasco Project and will receive an endowment of 5,000 euros (2,000 euros in remuneration and 3,000 euros to finance the production of his intervention at the Palais de Tokyo). A portrait of the winner filmed by Arte will be posted on its site. The work of the winner will also be presented on the walls of the ADAGP.

To apply, send before August 28, 2020 at 2 p.m. a complete application file, in pdf format, including:

- The application form, completed and signed, typed, saved in pdf format, in French or English. The sheet is to be downloaded from the ADAGP (www.adagp.fr [1]) and Palais de Tokyo (www.palaisdetokyo.com [2]) websites;

- A CV / biography of a page detailing the course of the participant, typed, saved in pdf format, in French or in English;

- A double-sided copy of an identity document (identity card, passport);

- 10 to 15 digital photographs of works, dated, accompanied, if the candidate wishes, by a few lines of presentation of each work, typed, in French or in English. It is recommended to present recent and old works to allow the jury to see the progress of the work.

Send, only by mail, the application files to the following address: revelationarturbain@adagp.fr [3]
