From September 16 to October 23, 2020, ADAGP welcomes the work of Thibault Brunet on its walls. Due to the health situation, this presentation will be accessible to the public only by appointment.

With his complicity, ADAGP presents the Thibault Brunet's research and in particular his work Ault for which he received the Artist Book Revelation 2019 during the MAD (Multiple Art Days) fair.

This prowess book by Thibault Brunet, published by Mille Cailloux, takes its name from the cliff of Ault that the artist has examined and represented in different forms and different scales. His presentation at ADAGP will return to this work of putting into perspective and representing the world that the artist develops more generally in all his work.
