

Published on Adagp (<https://www.adagp.fr>)

Home > I've seen one of my works reproduced online without my permission, what shall I do ?

---

Check that you didn't give the user any permission to use your works.

Inform the Multimedia Department of the unauthorised use, indicating :

- the URL of the website (including the precise extension indicating the location of the work)
- date it was put on line
- title of the work or images from your archives for identification.

Please instruct us whether :

- you want the works to be removed
- and/or receive royalties.

After checking the details provided, we will contact the site concerned to ask for the works to be removed or to receive royalties, according to your instructions and when the legislation applicable allows this.

---